

FAMILY FUN @ CHRISTMAS!

Christmas Would You Rather...

Would you rather have a red nose like Rudolph or be green like the Grinch?

Would you rather build a gingerbread house or decorate sugar cookies?

Would you rather spend Christmas at a cabin in the mountains or at the beach in the Caribbean?

Would you rather go on a sleigh ride to Grandma's house or roast chestnuts over an open fire?

Would you rather go to a cookie exchange party or to an ugly sweater party?

Would you rather eat all the chocolate out of an advent calendar in one night or drink an entire cup of hot cocoa without stopping?

Would you rather make homemade snow globes or make glittery Christmas slime?

Would you rather have one massive Christmas tree or have four small Christmas trees?

Would you rather spend the day doing Christmas crafts or taking holiday family photos?

Would you rather watch Home Alone or How the Grinch Stole Christmas?

Would you rather be at home on Christmas and get lots of presents or go to Disneyland for Christmas but not get any presents?

Would you rather listen to Christmas songs on the radio or watch Christmas movies on television?

Now, make up your own....

Christmas Charades

Act out favorite Christmas/winter activities and have the rest of the group guess. Or hum a favorite carol or Christmas song.

Christmas Cookie Challenge:

Supplies: cookies

All players place a cookie on their forehead and without touching it, have to get it into their mouth using only facial movements.

Wrap It Up:

Supplies: Piece of wrapping paper

Keeping your eyes closed, players must try to rip their wrapping paper into the shape of a Christmas tree.

Don't Show Your Teeth:

Supplies: none

The object of the game is to not show your teeth. Take turns saying different Christmas phrases while covering your teeth with your lips. The others must repeat what you say, with their teeth covered as well.

Examples of Christmas phrases (but feel free to come up with your own):

Joy to the World

Rudolph the Red Nosed Reindeer

FA LA LA LA LA

Have Yourself a Merry little Christmas

Walking in a Winter Wonderland

Pa-Rum Pum Pum Pum

Have A Holly Jolly Christmas

Jesus Is The Reason For The Season

Merry Christmas To All And To All A Good Night!
